

Donor Privacy Policy + Bill of Rights

Out of respect for our donors' privacy, we do not trade, share or sell our mailing lists or donor information to other organizations. In addition, we do not send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations. The use of personal donor information will be limited to the internal purposes of Freedom School Partners and only to further its mission of service for children and families in need. All of these terms refer to donor information collected online and offline.

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To assure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the not-for-profit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

- To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for the intended purposes.
- To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
- To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
- To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
- To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
- To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.
- To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

If you have any questions or concerns about FSP's privacy policy or how your donation is handled please contact us at 704-371-4922.
