I AM FREEDOM SCHOOL

Preparing children for success through summer literacy programs led by college student role models in collaboration with community partners

freedomschoolpartners.org
OUR VISION: Freedom School for every child who needs one.

It’s truly amazing that in only six weeks you can see such a HUGE difference in the kids and in turn, yourself. The relationships that Freedom School gave me are unique and will continue to impact who I am.”

- Providence Day Intern

“I had a scholar who was very reserved and guarded. As the summer progressed, he began to open up and share his feelings. He revealed that he always felt like his mom wasn’t proud of him and Freedom School allowed him to realize that he was worthy and special and gave him the courage to express those things to his mom.”

- Regional Site Coordinator

“One student did not want to read at all and had no interest in any books, but by the middle of the program she always asked if we could read or when we would have DEAR time.”

- Ashley Park Intern

“Before Freedom School, it would always be me that had to bring the book to her, now she’s always coming to me with something she wants to read to me and I’m loving it!”

- Billingsville Parent

“I love Freedom School because it treats everybody equally and never gives up on anyone...”

- Freedom School scholar

OUR IMPACT: Improving academic achievement • Increasing resiliency
OUR MISSION: Engage, educate and empower children to succeed in school and in life through quality, year-round educational enrichment opportunities.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY 10/01/2011 – 9/30/2012

Together, WE ARE FREEDOM SCHOOL...

With the support and generosity of so many individuals in our community, almost 1,600 children experienced the magic of Freedom Schools in summer 2012. THANK YOU! Children, called scholars, enjoyed almost three hours a day of literacy instruction, participated in field trips for fun and cultural enrichment and built fantastic relationships with volunteers. As a result, over 90% of our scholars beat summer learning loss!! Some highlights from this summer’s evaluation:

- 63% of children posted gains in reading comprehension, and
- 30% maintained reading comprehension (compared to losing 2-3 months as many children do)
- 1,075 families participated; 94% of parents reporting that they saw an increase in their child’s confidence in reading
- 198 interns representing 49 colleges and universities impacted young lives; over 35% were first generation college students.

One story to share: A scholar in critical need of Freedom School moved 30 minutes away from her site with no transportation options. A retired church member offered to drive the distance, round trip, and did so every day so this child could attend the Christ Lutheran Freedom School. At the end of summer, a fellow scholar asked, “Is that your grandpa?” She replied, “No, but I wish he was.” The church member now attends services regularly and volunteers on a weekly basis. Freedom School spreads into the community far beyond impacting our scholars. Important partners to our work are:

- Volunteers who spend hundreds of hours with children leading afternoon activities, reading at Harambee, chaperoning field trips and sharing experiences.
- Interns who report life changing summers — recognizing their impact on the lives of young people.
- Parents who become more engaged in their child’s education.
- Partners who extend their support to make sure summer is a time of growth and positive experiences for low-income children.

There are still many children who need Freedom School. The Foundation For The Carolinas estimates that only 10% of children who need quality summer programming are being served. We appreciate your support and thank you for standing with us and saying — WE ARE FREEDOM SCHOOL!
